The only means to fight the plague is honesty.

MEDICAL DOCTORS QUESTIONING CORONAVIRUS (ongoing)

Note: Director-General of WHO, Ethiopian Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus is the first WHO D-G who is not a medical doctor. He holds an undergraduate degree in biology, a masters degree in immunology of infectious diseases and a PhD in community health.

Bhattacharya

Questioning Conventional Wisdom in the COVID-19 Crisis, with Dr. Jay Bhattacharya of the Hoover Institution: The official virus narrative is false: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UO3Wd5urg0&feature=emb_logo

Dr. Jay Bhattacharya is a professor of medicine at Stanford University. He is a research associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research and a senior fellow at both the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research and the Stanford Freeman Spogli Institute. His March 24, 2020, article in the Wall Street Journal questions the premise that "coronavirus would kill millions without shelter-in-place orders and quarantines." In the article he suggests that "there's little evidence to confirm that premise—and projections of the death toll could plausibly be orders of magnitude too high." In this edition of Uncommon Knowledge with Peter Robinson we asked Dr. Bhattacharya to defend that statement and describe to us how he arrived at this conclusion. We get into the details of his research, which used data collected from hotspots around the world and his background as a doctor, a medical researcher, and an economist. It's not popular right now to question conventional wisdom on sheltering in place, but Dr. Bhattacharya makes a strong case for challenging it, based in economics and science.

COVID-19 is a condition of oxygen deprivation, not pneumonia... VENTILATORS may be causing the lung damage, not the virus:

COVID-19 is not a pneumonia-like disease at all. It's an oxygen deprivation condition, and the use of ventilators may be doing more harm than good with some patients. The ventilators themselves, due to the high-pressure methods they are running, may be damaging the lungs and leading to widespread harm of patients. "In these nine days I have seen things I have never seen before," he says.

Pall

Dr. Martin Pall, Professor Emeritus of Biochemistry and Basic Medical Sciences at Washington State University

(US) NEW 22.3.20 - Argument for a 5G – COVID-19 Epidemic Causation Mechanism by Martin Pall, PhD: <https://electromagnetichealth.org/electromagnetic-health-blog/5g-covid-19-epidemic/>

Prof. Em. Pall offers the theory that the suppression of the immune system by exposure to 5G towers could weaken the body and increase the detrimental effect of CoViD-19.

"The question that is being raised here is not whether 5G is responsible for the virus, but rather whether 5G radiation, acting via VGCC activation may be exacerbating the viral replication or the spread or lethality of the disease. Let's backtrack and look at the recent history of 5G in Wuhan in order to get some perspective on those questions. An Asia Times article, dated Feb. 12, 2019 (<https://www.asiatimes.com/2019/02/article/china-to-launch-first-5g-smart-highway>) stated that there were 31 different 5G base stations (that is antennae) in Wuhan at the end of 2018. There were plans developed later such that approximately 10,000 5G antennae would be in place at the end of 2019, with most of those being on 5G LED smart street lamps. The first such smart street lamp was put in place on May 14, 2019 (www.china.org.cn/china/2019-05/14/content_74783676.htm), but large numbers only started being put in place in October, 2019, such that there was a furious pace of such placement in the last 2 ½ months of 2019. These findings show that the rapid pace of the coronavirus epidemic developed at least roughly as the number of 5G antennae became extraordinarily high. So we have this finding that China's 1st 5G smart city and smart highway is the epicenter of this epidemic and this finding that the epidemic only became rapidly more severe as the numbers of 5G antennae skyrocketed.

... "It is my opinion, therefore, that 5G radiation is greatly stimulating the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and also the major cause of death, pneumonia and therefore, an important public health measure would be to shut down the 5G antennae."

<https://thesaker.is/interview-with-professor-didier-raoult-in-the-parisien-newspaper-22-march-2020/>

...The problem in this country is that the people that talk are abysmally ignorant. I did a scientific study of Chloroquine and viruses, which was published, thirteen years ago. Since then four other studies by other authors have shown that Coronavirus responds to Chloroquine. None of that is new.

That the group of decision makers do not even know about the latest science takes my breath away. We knew about the potential effect of Chloroquine on cultured viral samples. It was known that it was an effective antiviral.

We decided in our experiments to add a course of treatment of azithromycine (an antibiotic used against bacterial pneumonia – ed).

When we added azithromycine to hydrochloroquine, in treating patients suffering from Covid-19, the results were spectacular. ...

Our stand:

- Governors and mayors across the country have taken unprecedented action by restricting the movement of healthy individuals, closing places of worship and public spaces, and interfering with business by ordering them to close their doors.
- There is a growing realization that government-imposed orders intended to contain the spread of the coronavirus are creating widespread devastation.

- One in four Americans has lost either part or all of their income since the end of March, and the GDP has fallen by 24 percent.
- US data shows that the case fatality rate might be as low as 0.1% — in other words, akin to the mortality rate of a severe seasonal flu. Ninety percent of those who are severely affected have an underlying health condition.
- Cases in which COVID-19 are merely suspected to be a cause of death are being recorded as official COVID-19 deaths.
- Americans are wondering how long they will be required to comply with orders that force healthy individuals to indefinitely stay at home and businesses deemed as “non-essential” to stay closed.
- Individuals are capable of taking precautions to avoid COVID-19. Those who are vulnerable or who have COVID-19 should stay home, but healthy individuals need to return to work so that our jobs, our economy and our well-being are not destroyed.
- It's time to stand and request commonsense policies that protect the vulnerable while restoring individuals' livelihoods and mitigating the repercussions of an indefinite shutdown. Email your governor and mayor NOW to urge them to lift the stay-at-home orders for healthy individuals.

ANALYSIS

17.4.20 – PART 1: RCA, NBC founder & Pilgrim David Sarnoff led the imperial British agenda that has terrorized our world for over 100 years:

<https://americans4innovation.blogspot.com/>

The recent arrest of Harvard bio-nanoscience Prof. Charles M. Lieber unlocked his family secrets that led us to David Sarnoff and his Pilgrims Society overlords when wireless began Charles' hidden father Robert helped Sarnoff build the AEGIS satellite, radar and missile systems now poised to unleash 5G bioweapons

Shockingly, Asst. Navy Sec. Franklin D. Roosevelt helped get the Pilgrims Society wireless terror moving in 1919

NBC, RCA, CBS, AT&T, GE, (SERCO, QintetiQ, Wellcome Trust), Westinghouse and United Fruit have always been propaganda, surveillance and weaponry systems for the Pilgrims Society headquartered in London, UK

Contributing Writers | Opinion | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | Apr. 16, 2020 | PDF | <https://tinyurl.com/yc3ylakq>

Important Reader Notice:

We initially intended to focus this post only on recently indicted Harvard bio-nanoscience professor Charles M. Lieber.

However, the unexpected discovery that his father Robert I. Lieber was a senior satellite, missile and radar engineer for RCA, NBC and David Sarnoff unlocked a secret door on the Pilgrims Society "Deep State."

It led us into a three-generation dynasty, in this case, a (Byelo)Russian-Romanian Jewish dynasty. These discoveries tie the Lieber family directly to the Sarnoffs, Pilgrims Society and the British Monarch, in league with Guglielmo Marconi's theft of Nikola Tesla's inventions. Cecil Rhodes, their spiritual founder, envisioned a 200-year plan for a one-world corporatist government protected from legal liability for their crimes by the British Monarch. They plan great wealth and power for themselves, while they control the deplorables with communism/socialism.

We have sacrificed much blood for their previous failed experiments: Boer Wars, Soviet communism, Fascism, Korea, Vietnam, Cambodia, Kosovo, Rwanda, Iraq, Afghanistan, etc. They hope their current American experiment with socialism will finally get it right (ANTIFA chant: "No borders, no wall, no USA at all.") They call it their "New World Order."

Once we discovered that Professor Lieber was hiding Sarnoff's secrets, we decided to do three posts. This one focuses on David Sarnoff. We encourage readers to persevere, this evidence will change our fake history books. No wonder many of us hated studying modern history. It was all a big fat Pilgrims Society, Carnegie-funded lie. For example, the Pilgrims Society's own histories DON'T EVEN MENTION DAVID SARNOFF, their prime mover of the 20th century. Oftentimes, what criminals don't tell you about themselves speaks volumes.

(Apr. 17, 2020)—We have uncovered so much indictable evidence of the Pilgrims Society's treachery against America, the British people and the world (1902-present) that we decided to publish these findings in three parts.

Dr.SHIVA LIVE: Breaking FREE of the NOT-SO-Obvious-Establishment. The Path to Freedom!: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jIA8T0ena1M&feature=emb_logo

Peter Tocci: The Real Reason for the Wireless "Season?" (excerpted from Wireless Technology: Ultra Convenient. Endlessly Entertaining. Criminally Instigated. Terminally Pathological): <https://www.activistpost.com/2019/02/wireless-technology-ultra-convenient-endlessly-entertaining-criminally-instigated-terminally-pathological.html>

Facile notions insist that greed/profit is the primary motive behind the world's major agonies. As noted, this plays a role in controlling the mid and lower levels of the power hierarchy. But might there be a greater, much more malevolent (psychopathic), Elite motive for the single-minded propagation of pathogenic wireless systems? Research strongly suggests there is.

Wheeler: "If something can be connected, it will be connected in a 5G world ... hundreds of billions of microchip-enabled products from pill bottles to plant waterers..." Now, raise your hand if you can't wait to have your plant waterer microchip-enabled. One (rhetorical?) question might be, "Does this mean you, some day, Consumer, even against your will?" 25

Whether aware or not, Wheeler didn't mention other aspects that readily complement 5G to compose the supreme foundation for a global surveillance/human-control system: Artificial Intelligence (AI – some say, 'summoning demons'); job-erasing robotics; the cashless-society (EU soon to begin elimination of physical money); Biometric ID (a number of Orwellian nightmares); the incorporation of technology, including microchips and nanotechnology (such as DNA nanobots), into humans (cyborgs); and quite possibly genetic modification, voluntary or not. And it would be a very simple matter to introduce nano's furtively into the body by way of ingestibles, topicals, and vaccines.

Perhaps having power fantasies about managing their lives with various waves of the hand, tech worshippers are lining up for their microchip, as one might expect. Because of course it's safe, secure, nothing can go wrong, and 'BigBro' would never think of turning off or micromanaging his budding cyborgs.

Microchipping pets has become big business, however. Is it being exploited to condition the public mind for (ultimately mandatory) human chipping? The big 'sell' about the pet version paints an exaggeratedly rosy picture, and there are laws in many places forcing it. It's strongly suggested, therefore, that people get educated on the problems, some severe, arising from pet microchips. Please don't hesitate to share with other pet owners and all concerned with pets and animals in general – including human ones.

Brain implants are already being used medically, and China is now reading the brains/emotions of workers with special mandatory caps. Tip of the coming control-system iceberg: Caps today, infused brain nanobots operated by 5G and AI via IoT tomorrow? To make matters worse, once one is sufficiently 'technified,' hackers could have a field day. A term for such 'human improvement' via techno-eugenics is Transhumanism.

Extensive data mining/surveillance is already in place, even with wired systems. Privacy laws are pabulum for the faithful. Personal data collection is inherent in system operation, which includes phones, social media, email, Internet and so on. Even if a cell phone is off, the microphone can be activated for remote listening. To avoid monitoring, one must remove the battery. With 5G speed and the aforementioned complements, the Elite will have total surveillance/information awareness, with thought/emotion/behavior monitoring and control at the 'push of a button' in real time.

With such formidable technology in play, it could come down to the 'superior few' totally controlling and disenfranchising the 'inferior many.' Obviously, the superior few will arise from the wealthy/powerful, some of whom have long been in supranational influence/control and wanting more. Could transhumans/cyborgs eventually be made immune to ICMR?

As suggested, potential flaws exist in the growing opposition to 5G, including Senator Blumenthal's (D-CT) request to the FCC for proof of safety. This request could amount to mere window dressing if the FCC is allowed to get away with the ruse used to declare 1G-to-4G safe.

Secondly, the safety/health backlash probably should not be aimed at 5G, but at wireless tech per se, 5G included. Otherwise, protesting 5G alone could lend an aura of acceptability to 4G, especially if 5G resistance has effect, and especially with the high level of 4G dependencies, addiction and obsession.

Any objection specific to 5G might better be focused on its potential to ramp up loss of liberty and personal autonomy beyond 4G capability (i.e., in real time), fulfilling a fundamental purpose of wireless per se: A major nail in the coffin of freedom. In other words, oppressive global-fascist governance is more likely to be realized in the technosphere than at the political/governmental level as has been thought. Of course, 'they' can control that level too. Nor is Sen. Blumenthal likely, putting it mildly, to touch this fundamental issue.

Wheeler: "To make sure we have this connectivity (buzzword) with high-band spectrum will require a lot more small cells, which means a lot more antenna siting decisions ... America's local governments will play an important role in determining how we fulfill this national priority."26 Up to 50,000 5G antennas are estimated for California alone (resistance is mounting there).

So one way of looking at the telecom converted-weapon system is that environmental and health effects are the 'price' of a centralized power to monitor, track, data-mine, file, index and dictate/control every aspect of human life – on a global scale (perhaps East and West Elite factions). See George Orwell's 1984 for the blueprint (minus our rapidly evolving wireless/hi-tech gulag), and China's social credit system for reflections thereof. China is also the world's "canary" for manifesting governance by unelected technocrats who want to be your brain/mind and want you to embrace the means of enslavement and control in "freedom's clothing."

FROM A CORRESPONDENT

Viruses are electroparasites. It is in German: Elektroparasiten - Strahlung wie 5G beeinflusst Viren (radiation like 5G influences viruses). But that is why electrohypersensitive people have these feelings. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1r_yTxsEhIY&feature=em-uploademail

But this is one more proof, that 5G is involved or all the artificial radiation around as in the activation of viruses. They react to electron charge, they feed off electricity, energy is their food! I found even a study that we can make electricity from viruses. Viruses are electro-sensitive, like me! That is also why we have herpes on nerve ends where there is energy. And when someone with psoriasis gets stressed, the voltage changes and the psoriasis get worse.

Years ago, with the research and sourced presentation given by LUCUS <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MR4a9k0w2JE> about the Destroyer Star (Wormwood, Nibiru, Planet X) his protege was just interviewed by Jason Goodman here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SRRoKvZ0v20> I recommend watching both, with the newest one (Jason Goodman) first. The first one by LUCUS contains the large number of sources and gives a background upon which JG/Intellihub is based. Mind-opening.

16.4.20 - German Lawyer sent to psych ward for organizing protest against covid-19 lockdown: <https://www.davidicke.com/article/568154/german-lawyer-sent-psych-ward-organizing-protest-covid-19-lockdown>

... It is not likely German lawyer Beate Bahner will be tortured like Brodsky. However, that does not make her arrest and forced confinement in a mental institution any less egregious.

"Bahner had become known in the past few days with a call for nationwide demonstrations and an urgent application for the abolition of all corona protective measures," reports Welt. "The [medical specialist] lawyer from Heidelberg considers the corona rules to be excessive and advocates for them to be abolished."

Prior to her arrest, which she resisted, Bahner's website was shut down at the request of the Mannheim police, according to the newspaper.

In America, the state has yet to lock dissidents up in mental institutions, although police have threatened people for attending church services and disobeying social distancing mandates.

In Mississippi, parishioners were fined $500 for attending a drive-in church service. In Massachusetts, the governor and local government control freaks ordered citizens to wear masks. The city of Lynn imposed a mandatory curfew. Authorities in Minneapolis charged twenty-three people with violating stay-at-home orders.

In Australia and Britain, police are fining citizens for daring to go outside (doing so in Queensland will result in a $100k fine). The dictator president of the Philippines, Rodrigo Duterte, has ordered police and the military to shoot and kill all in violation of an iron-fisted lockdown.

As a nation-wide lockdown and draconian measures destroy business, jobs, and lives, people are beginning to resist.

In Michigan, protesters gathered outside the state capitol to denounce Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's lockdown. "We do not agree with or consent to our unalienable rights being restricted or rescinded for any reason, including the COVID-19 pandemic," said Michigan United for Liberty on its Facebook page.

In Raleigh, North Carolina the police denounced a protest against lockdown as "non-essential activity," a direct violation of the First Amendment.

Protesters angry with Gov. Mike DeWine's lockdown order interrupted a coronavirus briefing at the Ohio Statehouse on Thursday.

Officialdom has warned lockdowns may be in place until a vaccine is manufactured, possibly 18 months from now. This is a sure recipe for civil unrest and violence. It is not feasible for millions of people—and billions around the world—to endure lockdown and other authoritarian measures, possibly indefinitely.

In Germany, the state has moved to declare opposition to the destruction of civilization a mental illness. As more people resist mass house arrest and enforced privation, the state will undoubtedly resort to measures above and beyond locking activists up in mental institutions.

NORAD and the Pentagon have planned for civil unrest for some time. The military is now engaged in a PR campaign to "reassure the public" that it will use the appropriate protective equipment as it prepares to put down inevitable uprisings.

German lawyer Beate Bahner has been brutalised by the police and locked up in a psychiatric unit for questioning the coronavirus scenario.

17.4.20 – Emergency Tribunal Hearing: Corona Pandemic and the Planetary Shutdown (3rd Sitting): <https://phibetaiota.net/2020/04/video-21337-emergency-tribunal-hearing-corona-pandemic-and-the-planetary-shutdown-3rd-sitting/>

There is an interesting discussion here (Dr. Martin, expert on stealth adapted viruses at 32.46) Rough notes: the body uses more energy than provided by food. The body has an alternative cellular pathway that can protect against viruses. Using energy transferred to activated water. Mentions homeopathy. KELEA: kinetic energy limiting electrostatic attraction. Comes into the planet with cosmic rays. When you have negative and positive electrical charges, they are attracted to each other. ... But in water, it loosens the water molecules. Energy in water is transmissible to other water. His thesis is that electromagnetic radiation is limiting the availability of KELEA coming into the planet and therefore all life on the planet is being deprived of life force. Vaccines have caused stealth adapted viruses.

16.4.20 – Dylan Charles - Global Crisis – messages from meetings with the plants:

https://www.wakingtimes.com/2020/04/16/global-crisis-messages-from-meetings-with-the-plants/?utm_source=Waking+Times+Newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=8459c2743e-RSS_EMAIL_CAMPAIGN&utm_term=0_25f1e048c1-8459c2743e-54797653

In a universal sense, the big message feels like a calling or an invitation, to awaken from the trance of contemporary culture. It's a challenge to prioritize connection to nature and to source, to place a higher value on life, to see through separation, and above all to heed the call to be of service.

It always vibrates with the frequency of undeniable truth.

In 2013, author Rak Razam presented our dilemma this way:

"The history of Western culture in the last two thousand years could be seen as the "Empire of the Mind conquering the exterior world and extinguishing the interior one, with the result that we have atrophied our spiritual connection." –Rak Razam

In 2018, author and researcher Graham Hancock received this insight from Ayahuasca, sharing it with the world in an urgent message:

"...Our species seems close to tearing itself apart and rendering the Earth uninhabitable in the process.

What fools we are to allow such a state of affairs to persist, and to allow politicians and religious mis-leaders – for their own short-term gain — to divide us from one another in order to rule us.

Brothers and sisters, wherever we are, no matter on which land or under which political or religious system chance brought us to be born, the time has come to awaken from this nightmare of our own making and remember the truth about ourselves — that we are all members of one family, no matter how widely scattered, that none of us have the slightest justification to claim superiority over any other, and that we all share the same hopes, fears, courage, fragility and capacity for love.

United we stand. It is just plain madness to continue to allow ourselves to be divided and defined by the artificial barriers of nation, race or creed. We must remember our common humanity, remember that we are one family, and put that realisation first before all other considerations if our species is to survive the challenges of the coming years and return once again to being good stewards of this precious garden of a planet." ~Graham Hancock ...

17.4.20 – Claudia von Werlhof: viruses instead of bombs: <https://www.pbme-online.org/2020/04/17/claudia-von-werlhof-viren-statt-bomben/>

Original German

There is only one explanation: We are at war. The state of emergency is declared. It is as if a coup had taken place. Hidden under the assertion that there is a "natural disaster": the "pandemic". As a result, all with make, so that you can contain it. How strange, however, that in Italy, a completely different Virus bypasses than elsewhere, as the local ISS, the Institute for health 1 notes ().

He comes not from China but from Italy itself. (2) How is that possible? And as it is elsewhere? The "climate catastrophe" was not enough. Now, the production, the Distribution, the consumption, the traffic, the public life is stopped under the pretext of a pandemic brachial everything, the criticism, the basic democratic rights. But nobody protested, everyone, all governments say the same thing, as if they had recently visited together a course. The UN and WHO to give to the outside the sound, they are considered to be human rights organizations that only want the Best for all.

After the collapse, which is here enforced, without any resistance, just awesome, the new world order with the new technologies, 5G-digitization, AI, genetic engineering (see virus production with genetically modified DNA), etc., It is now practiced on time, so to speak, of small... Then likely have all the equipment with Sensors must be newly purchased. And the forced vaccination, threatens, possibly, with built-in Chips.

Then we, the Survivors, soon, only "records" in the Internet of Things, replaceable, have become parts of the Mega-machine and manipulated Cyborgs. Our "solidarity" should not only serve the social project and System, us to each other. The new man is already propagated. He is not identified with, and be the same, but with the company's project. Some call it "socialism". I call it Patriarchy. Because the machinery in all its forms, will set the tone and the "life creating" orwhat, then, is seen below. The allegedly higher re-creation of the world is upon us!

Still, we are not quite so far, but on the way. If this is true, we will see that Easter is not everything "good". Jeremy Rifkin has it in "The Green New Deal", "Yes it was reported. (3) it's all in here, as well as the petroleum sector is to be replaced. This has already started. Only the Virus is not in him, because it was the "climate change", the mankind is endangered. But something is set in motion, there must be apparently immediate threats. The exchanges show it is now more than clear. Here, it is not only an interruption.

If what happened so far, everything is "lawful", is currently a lawyer, I hear. Maybe there will be more soon – unless, of course, mankind has abandoned the Thinking completely in the meantime. Because fear is quite entitled. There is really a Virus – or several.

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2020/apr/13/half-of-coronavirus-deaths-happenin-care-homes-data-from-eu-suggests>

Figures from Italy, Spain, France, Ireland and Belgium suggest UK may be underestimating care sector deaths - About half of all Covid-19 deaths appear to be happening in care homes in some European countries, according to early figures gathered by UK-based academics who are warning that the same effort must be put into fighting the virus in care homes as in the NHS.

Snapshot data from varying official sources shows that in Italy, Spain, France, Ireland and Belgium between 42% and 57% of deaths from the virus have been happening in homes, according to the report by academics based at the London School of Economics (LSE). Published official data for care homes in England and Wales are believed to significantly underestimate deaths in the sector, with the Office for National Statistics only recording 20 coronavirus-related deaths in all care homes in the week ending 27 March.

... This critique has special relevance during the current coronavirus crisis, not to mention its important implications for the roles of government and press in a democracy. CNN and other media outlets treat CDC, NIH, and WHO pronouncements as infallible truths. In fact, regulatory capture has made these agencies subsidiaries of Big Pharma, and the lies that CDC has been telling us about flu are now muddying the debate over coronavirus. ...

A CORRESPONDENT WRITES TO COMMENT ON THE NAME BILL GATES

A “bill” is something you have to pay. And “Gates” you have to go through.

The names in all of this are interesting and we should pay attention. I put this in my Stop5G Newsletter last year.

15. YOU-COULDN'T-MAKE-IT-UP MOMENTS IN THE 5G CAMPAIGN STRANGE NAMES OF PEOPLE INVOLVED IN THE 5G STRUGGLE

What's with the names of the people involved in the 5G struggle? Has anyone else picked up on this?

In Vienna, Austria, the Chief Executive Officer of telco A1, who launched 5G at the Rathausplatz is called Herr Grausam – this means cruel, barbarous, ghastly, savage. ICNIRP staffer Van Rongen sounds like the German for X-ray, Röntgen.

There's a big sun theme going on, with Josh del Sol, the maker of “Take Back Your Power”. Then there's Mark [Man of] Steele's S.U.N. movement. Olle Johansson, one of the leading EMF scientists, was christened Sven Olaf Lennart. You've got the Gilets Jaunes (Yellow Vests) movement going on simultaneously in France, an expression of the general dissatisfaction and who have explicitly cited the Stop 5G Space Appeal in their list of demands.

ICNIRP's Van Rongen = Röntgen or X-ray

How about the statesmanlike Cal Washington, leader of the InPower movement? And Barrie Trower (Origin: old English trūwian, trēowian ‘to trust’).

French parliamentarian Mme. Laurence Abeille (= honeybee) proposed a law to limit public exposure to EMFs. Etienne Cendrier (= ashtray) is a French journalist who accused the operators in 2003 of cheating in lowering exposure limits. Then there's Arthur Firstenberg leading the charge with the Appeal. Claire (= light or clear) Edwards is the editor and co-author of the Appeal and the compiler of this newsletter and is bringing clear information about 5G to the public. (Ed. More contributions on this theme are welcomed. Contact stop5gappeal@protonmail.com.)

If you want to become a doctor right now you can become one without years of training in New York City. Just attribute all deaths to COVID-19 so Governor Cuomo can justify keeping everyone locked down in a desperate attempt to boost Democrats for the 2020 elections. It is astonishing how COVID-19 has become a miracle cure for all diseases. Nobody is dying of even a heart attack for the last two weeks. Just sneeze, and that is good enough to classify you with Coronavirus. Meanwhile, in Germany, the first real study has revealed that only 0.37% of coronavirus infected people die from it. According to this, the death rate of the novel virus is only around 0.4%. Our sources in Italy were reporting that NOBODY was dying from Coronavirus alone. They typically had some other disease.

The media has threatened our liberty, our livelihood, and the national security of the nation with FAKE NEWS as always. Something as to be done to stop these people from undermining our freedom and civil liberties worldwide.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT

At the macro level, It appears that the elites/deep state are holding most of the cards but IF (big if) the much-discussed plan is in place/operation is in progress, it could go a long way toward leveling the playing field. IF NOT, this lockdown is the first step toward tyranny and we have to be prepared to quite literally defend our liberty...to the death. Civil disobedience may be on the cards because socialism is only about empowering the state and when freedom is lost, it has rarely been restored by peaceful means. That has only happened when the police wake up and realise they are defending tyranny against their own families.

I was reading something today about the history of socialism that might be relevant at this time:

-from Socialist Councils, Debt Bondage and Serfdom by Dr. Naomi Jacobs. She writes:

"The two main Greek/Roman deities that represent the spiritual inspiration of the United Nations are Zeus and Ceres. While Zeus (Roman equivalent =Jupiter) is the main pagan deity of the religion of socialism domiciled in the United Nations, his special consort is the Roman Mother-earth 'cereal' goddess, Ceres (Greek name =Demeter).

As the old Roman goddess of agriculture, she is now the modern patron of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO).

<http://www.unmultimedia.org/s/photo/detail/123/0123245.html> To symbolize the fact that she now heads the FAO organization, the FAO's chief award is the Ceres Medal. Helen Clark, the former New Zealand PM, received hers on December 16, 2003. While these people often may claim they are either 'agnostics' or 'atheists' and have no religion at all, the irrefutable fact is they are extremely religious people who worship both Greek and Roman gods.

In ancient Rome, Ceres was worshipped on April 19th every year during a special feast called the Cerialia. At the conclusion of this feast, there was a special sacrifice where a pregnant cow or pig was sacrificed, and then with its young, burned whole. This sacrifice was called the HOLOCAUST or 'burnt offering.' During the Second World War, Adolph Hitler changed the normal German celebration day of Socialism on May 1st (May Day – named after the pagan Greek Mother-earth goddess Maia) to April 19th the Roman Cerialia, named after the Roman equivalent Ceres. It was precisely at 9 a.m. in the morning of Jewish Passover, April 19th, 1943, the exact time that the Cerialia would have been sacrificed in ancient Rome that he sent his Nazi executioners in to burn the Jewish Warsaw ghetto to the ground. Using tanks with flame-throwers, "a whole burnt offering of a pregnant cow," they proceeded forth to burn men, women and children – a Holocaust sacrifice to Ceres.

More recently, again, at 9 a.m. in the morning of April 19th, 1993, exactly fifty years to the day, the US Government burned the Waco, Texas, Branch Davidian Complex to the ground, using tanks with flame-throwers, burning men, women and children. This time, not by an evil Nazi leader, but directly ordered by the President and Attorney General of the United States. That very evening, [also evil] President Clinton had the effrontery to open the Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington DC.

Again, even more recently, at precisely 9 a.m. in the morning of April 19th, 1995, the Federal Building in Oklahoma City exploded and crashed to the ground killing many people. America's Kids Day Care Center was located in one of the lower floors. The President claimed "The bombing was an attack by false patriots on innocent children." Will the United States now go on to re-enact Nero's burning of Rome, or Hitler's burning of the old Nazi Reichstag Building? Are these Cerialia sacrifices a symptom of a much deeper pervading evil in the US Government administration today? Is the fascist United States of America government dominating the rest of the world, now beginning to follow the socialist policies of the Nazi leader?

Comment: the history of the Deep State-dominated CIA traces back to Nazi Germany, and "something's up" in America now...as Trump and the Deep State (which was crafted and funded by the same lizards that brought the world Marx, Lenin, Stalin and Hitler) are locked in a battle to the death. Just sayin', folks...and keeping watch. The day may well pass without (major) incident.

So last week we had Lynne McTaggart spewing out Club of Rome poison (<https://emfmadness.wordpress.com/2020/04/12/gift-of-a-global-plague-you-are-an-evil-woman/>).

This week we have Bruce Lipton: THE MASS EXTINCTION: Dr. Bruce Lipton's explanation of the next step of mankind's evolution: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZSUin8Ai8Y0>

Both Lipton and McTaggart are part of the Club of Rome/Club of Budapest/Worldshift/Evolutionary Leaders Cabal, working to achieve the depopulationist aims of Club of Rome. Gregg Braden and many others are part of this conspiracy. See picture below.

13.4.20 - UNITED STATES IS OVER! TRUMP HANDS IT OVER TO F.E.M.A. !!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HahhDleq1Ck&feature=youtu.be>

The 'COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA,' a US corporation, would now also be under FEMA NWO rule

FEMA - The Federal Emergency Management Agency is an agency of the United States Department of Homeland Security, initially created by Presidential Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1978 and implemented by two Executive Orders on April 1, 1979.

FEMA has more power than the President of the U.S. or the Congress. It has the power to suspend laws, move entire populations, arrest and detain citizens without a warrant and hold them without trial, it can seize property, food supplies, transportation systems and can suspend the Constitution.

When a state of Emergency is declared EXECUTIVE ORDER 11921 allows the Federal Emergency Preparedness Agency to develop plans to establish control over the mechanisms of production and distribution of energy sources, wages, salaries, credit and the flow of money in U.S. financial institution in any undefined national emergency. It also provides that when a state of emergency is declared by the President, Congress cannot review the action for 6 months.

When Trump signed the National Emergency Declaration on March 13, 2020, FEMA took over. Trump said 'this is the beginning of what we are really doing and now we are in a different phase (i.e. NWO).... we had old and obsolete rules (the Constitution) that we had to live with that worked under certain circumstances but not under mass circumstances (i.e. under FEMA rule). They were in place for a long time and we are breaking them down now (i.e. the Constitution is suspended). They were very usable for certain instances but not for this (ie. they can't go forward with their plan if Americans have constitutional rights). To unleash the full power of the Federal Government I am officially declaring a National Emergency (ie we are now under the rule of FEMA no longer having a President).

March 19, 2020, the FEMA National Response Coordination Centre told Trump that the National Emergency Declaration has really empowered FEMA.

April 10, 2020, Trump said 'It's been my great honour to have been their President. I have a big decision coming up and I hope to God that it's the right decision but it will be based on the input from a lot of very talented, very smart people and people who love our country.

Mike Pompeo said 'We are in a live exercise' and in the background Trump said 'You should have let us know.'

FEMA was created in a series of Executive Orders. A Presidential Executive Order, whether constitutional or not becomes law simply by its publication in the Federal Registry. Congress is bypassed.

We thought FEMA was created to help people in national disasters. Executive Order # 12148 created the Federal Emergency Management Agency that is to interface with the Dept Defense for civil defense planning and funding. An emergency czar was appointed.

Executive Order #12656 appointed the National Security council as the principal body that should consider emergency powers. This allows the government to increase domestic intelligence and surveillance of U.S. citizens and would restrict the freedom of movement within the U.S. and grant the government the right to isolate large groups of civilians. The National Guard could be federalised to seal all borders and take control of U.S. air space and all ports of entry.

Executive Order 10990 allows the government to take over all modes of transportation and control of highways and seaports.

Executive Order 10995 allows the government to seize and control the communication media.

Executive order 10997 allows the government to take over all electrical power, gas, petroleum, fuels and minerals.

Executive Order 10998 allows the government to take over all food resources and farms.

Executive Order 11000 allows the government to mobilize civilians into work brigades under government supervision.

Executive Order 11001 allows the government to take over all health, education and welfare functions.

Executive order 11002 designates the Postmaster General to operate a national registration of all persons (Census).

Executive Order 11003 allows the government to take over all airports and aircraft including commercial aircraft.

Executive Order 11004 allows the Housing and Finance Authority to relocate communities, build new housing with public funds, designate areas to be abandoned and establish new locations for populations.

Executive Order 11005 allows the government to take over railroads, inland waterways and public storage facilities.

Executive Order 11051 specifies the responsibility of the Office of Emergency Planning and gives authorisation to put all Executive Orders into effect in times of increased international tensions and economic or financial crisis.

Executive Order 11310 grants authority to the Dept Justice to enforce the plans set out in Executive Orders, to institute industrial support, to establish judicial and legislative liaison, to control all aliens, to operate penal and correctional institutions.

Executive Order 11049 assigns emergency preparedness function to federal depts and agencies consolidating 21 operative Executive Orders issued over a 15 year period.

George Bush Snr talks about New World Order at 9.36pm where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind; peace and security, freedom and the rule of law. Such is a world worthy of our struggle and worthy of our children's future.

15.4.20 - Jon Rappaport - Immunity certificates: a load of nonsense and a covert op:

<https://blog.nomorefakenews.com/2020/04/15/immunity-certificates-a-load-of-nonsense-and-a-covert-op/>

"Your papers, please. You have none? You must go back into the dark."

—Once again, in this article, I step into the world of official gibberish about the epidemic and the virus and tests and so on. I point out the internal contradictions in the government position. And then I step back and look at what they're really up to, in the way of a covert operation.

... Carrot and stick. Be free, or be limited.

If, indeed, we see a COVID-19 vaccine introduced, another variation on this operation would be: "Under Emergency regulations, everyone must take the shot." But when you do, you'll get your very valuable certificate of immunity. You'll win a prize. Isn't that wonderful?

No. It isn't.

It's Corona Bologna.

It's all about CONTROL.

And in this article, I haven't discussed questions about what would actually be IN the COVID-19 vaccine. I took up that subject in a recent piece about DNA vaccines. The new DNA technology, if introduced, would PERMANENTLY alter the genetic makeup of the vaccine-recipient.

And meanwhile...don't you just love the idea of the government first locking you up, and then "freeing" you with an official seal of approval?

"The gate is open for you, sir. You have your papers. But you, sir, you must go back. No papers."

Senator Anna Kaplan of New York introduced a bill on March 3rd, 2020 to study the health and environmental impacts associated with exposure to 5G wireless radiation frequencies. This has just come to our attention now. The bill calls upon the Department of Health and the Department of Environmental Conservation, in cooperation with the Office of Technology Services, to "...jointly study and evaluate the health and environmental impacts of the implementation of fifth generation (5G) and future generation wireless systems technology and small cell distribution antenna systems in the state."

12.3.20 - Scientists counter ICNIRP's guidelines on 5G, cell phone and wireless radiation exposures: <https://ehtrust.org/scientists-counter-icnirps-guidelines-on-5g-cell-phone-and-wireless-radiation-exposures/>

The International Commission on Non-Ionizing Radiation Protection (ICNIRP) has released new guidelines that it says will ensure people are protected from radio frequency (RF) signals of 5G services. The guidelines also cover 3G and 4G devices, Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, and radio.

The new guidelines, which took seven years to develop, are more appropriate than the organization's first guidelines released in 1998 because they include higher frequencies used for 5G services, said ICNIRP Chairman Eric van Rongen.

"We know parts of the community are concerned about the safety of 5G and we hope the updated guidelines will help put people at ease," he said. "The guidelines have been developed after a thorough review of all relevant scientific literature, scientific workshops and an extensive public consultation process. They provide protection against all scientifically substantiated adverse health effects due to EMF exposure in the 100 kHz to 300 GHz range."

A news release said the primary changes in the new guidelines dealing with 5G and spectrum above 6 gigahertz are (1) "the addition of a restriction for exposure to the whole body;" (2) "the addition of a restriction for brief (less than 6-minute) exposures to small regions of the body;" and (3) "the reduction of the maximum exposure permitted over a small region of the body."

The ICNIRP said that other "minor" changes include (1) "greater transparency to make the logic and scientific basis of the guidelines easier for the health protection community to engage with;" (2) "additional means of assessing compliance with the guidelines;" and (3) "greater specification of how to assess complicated exposure scenarios."

The guidelines are published in the scientific journal "Health Physics."

ICNIRP said its guidelines consider non-thermal effects of RF emissions. It said that it "considers all potential adverse health effects, and sets restrictions to ensure that none occur, regardless of the mechanism of interaction between the exposure and the body. The lowest exposure levels that can cause adverse health effects are due to thermal mechanisms, and so restrictions have been set based on the thermal effects, as these will protect against any other effects that could occur at higher exposure levels."

Critics who complain about inadequate RF standards set around the world, including the failure to consider the impact of 5G deployments, particularly point to what they said is a lack of attention to non-thermal RF effects.

Joel Moskowitz, director of the Center for Family and Community Health in the University of California at Berkeley's School of Public Health and creator of the saferemr.com website, said that ICNIRP's guidelines "were designed to protect us only from short-term heating (or thermal) effects. The guidelines fail to protect us from non-thermal effects, especially from long-term exposure to wireless radiation because ICNIRP continues to dismiss the many hundreds of peer-reviewed studies that have found biologic and health effects from exposure to low-intensity, radio frequency radiation including many human as well as animal studies. The preponderance of the research has found evidence of increased cancer incidence, oxidative stress, DNA damage, and infertility from exposure to wireless radiation."

"Relying on twentieth-century science to set standards for 21st-century technology makes no sense. The complexity of the technology makes it possible for this unelected group of 11 persons that reports to no authority and has no oversight to wield unreasonable influence. This report relies on a highly selective literature review," said Devra Davis, president of the Environmental Health Trust. "They make no mention of the fact that infertility clinics around the world advise men having problems impregnating their partners to remove wireless devices from their bodies. They completely discount results from the U.S. flagship testing program, the National Toxicology Program, that produced what peer-reviewers concurred was clear evidence of cancer in animals and compelling evidence of DNA damage in both mice and rats exposed to the same amounts of cellphone radiation as humans can receive in their lifetimes. They do not even consider the work of Lennart Hardell, arguably one of the top experts in the field studying the human impacts of cell phones, and fail to mention the large French national study of brain cancer that confirmed increased risks in the heaviest cellphone users."

Ms. Davis added that "EHT is working with top legal experts to challenge outdated FCC standards (that rely on ICNIRP) because they betray the public trust by failing to take full notice of the range of scientific information on these matters. Further, we think that contrary analyses from European expert groups must be taken into account in any consideration of appropriate policy responses."

Last December, the FCC released an item maintaining its existing RF exposure limits despite arguments that they are unsafe and should be tightened (TR Daily, Dec. 4, 2019). EHT and several other groups and individuals have filed two legal challenges to the item (TR Daily, Feb. 5).

'What will happen in the next few weeks and months will likely shape the world for many years to come. Rather than resisting the forces of entropy and indulging in faint hopes of a return to normality, the future will be on the side of those who are able to embrace chaos and disruption as an opportunity to propose a different vision for global society. Naomi Klein, author of The Shock Doctrine, says: "If there is one thing history teaches us, it's that moments of shock are profoundly volatile. We either lose a whole lot of ground, get fleeced by elites, and pay the price for decades, or we win progressive victories that seemed impossible just a few weeks earlier. This is no time to lose our nerve."

This is Club of Rome bullshit.

Please be very careful. ALL media is controlled, even a lot of the alternative media. So-called spiritual leaders such as Bruce Lipton and Lynne McTaggart are coming out with Club of Rome propaganda (<https://emfmadness.wordpress.com/2020/04/12/gift-of-a-global-plague-you-are-an-evil-woman/>). Kosmos Journal is also funded by the same people. It is pure propaganda. I subscribe to The Conversation, another online journal and I see the same New Age shit spewing out of that.

This is a PLAN and it is being deployed to perfection. Contrary to the bullshit they are coming out with, there is no collapse, no catastrophe, no virus, no crisis, nothing. All of this is totally engineered and we are being totally manipulated by all these traitors to humanity. Lynne McTaggart, Bruce Lipton, traitor to humanity. Deepak Chopra, instigator of Evolutionary Leaders, fifth columnist for Ervin Laszlo of Club of Rome/Budapest.

This Krajevski says, "Rather than resisting the forces of entropy and indulging in faint hopes of a return to normality, the future will be on the side of those who are able to embrace chaos and disruption as an opportunity to propose a different vision for global society". That's right. Don't bother insisting that you want to go back to the freedoms and the world that we had. No, we need to move forward, embrace the vaccinations, get our Auschwitz tattooed numbers and line up obediently for our daily dollop of glop because soon there won't even be any food. But the message is that all of this is good for the planet because we are evil, disgusting, polluting humans and we must be made extinct and punished for our evil acts in consuming too much and polluting the planet.

Well, guess what? When Germany introduced recycling, people recycled so much paper that they didn't know how to deal with it. Guess what? My mum used to wash plastic bags so as not to use too many. My parents grew their own food and we grew up having to eat all the food on our plates because it was wrong to be wasteful. The only people who pollute and promote consumerism on this planet are the psychopathic elite - everyone else cares deeply about being responsible. I have a liquidiser that cost 750 euros. It's fantastic and that US company is thriving because people are queuing up to buy these. We don't want to have to buy another machine every six months - we want a machine that will last a lifetime. I buy shoes that can be repaired - I don't buy shoes that get thrown away every six months. My parents bought three sofas in their lifetime, and even then they could have managed with just two. Before the 1980s, we never borrowed money. We only spent money that we earned. Then the banks changed everything and encouraged everyone to become borrowers, speculators in housing. We no longer had homes - we had investments and everyone stupidly imagined that made them rich. But if they sell their investment, they just have to buy another one for the same price, and all the time the prices go up because of inflation. How does that make them rich?

In Britain, when you first had house price inflation in the 1970s, the people who benefited sold up in expensive areas and moved to the West of England. But that pushed up prices there so then they started moving to France. That pushed up prices there so they moved to Spain. Then Spain became expensive and they started buying in Bulgaria. And of course all the corruption involved meant that people were ripped off and it all ended in tears. What did they expect? This is all corruptive. It is a corruptive system. It is a predatory system.

This is the reason that they are targeting us older people for early death by no longer providing health care. 50% of the people in care homes in Europe are dying under this "coronavirus" bullshit. And old people in hospitals in the UK have been pressured into signing "Do not resuscitate" forms. This is a war on memory. Because we have memory and memory is dangerous, as we know from Orwell's 1984. We remember the truth of how things were before. You can't just keep telling us every week something new about the past and have us believe the bullshit. We see right through it.

Please don't buy into the bullshit. Trust yourself only. If you want to understand this plan, please listen to the conversation that Shai Danon and Claire Edwards had in February. All of this is explained by that conversation: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HC1Z7Fo5mgk>. We are living in a complete fiction and people are buying into it.

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/civil-unrest/civil-unrest-rising-in-belgium/>

Violent riots broke out in the Belgian city of Anderlecht last weekend. Violence erupted Saturday afternoon, with groups of migrants throwing rocks and glass at police officers, according to reports. One man is said to have fired three shots in the air from a gun that appeared to have been stolen from the police.

All the studies show you cannot lock people down. They will begin to become violent after 4 to 6 weeks. This fake attempt to use a virus that has not proven to be even as lethal as the annual flu will have serious implications in rising civil unrest. You will NOT be able to keep people locked down for 18 months as Bill Gates is insisting.

On April 23rd Ramadan begins. I do not think they will be able to maintain this lockdown as they will witness rising tensions in Europe.

5G / CORONAVIRUS HEALTH ASPECTS

Scientists counter ICNIRP's guidelines on 5G, cell phone and wireless radiation exposures:

<https://www.davidicke.com/article/567871/soviet-era-study-1974-revealed-affect-viruses-microbes-millimeter-waves-5g-became-diminishing-reproduction-know-exactly-exposed>

Please note the exposure times mentioned - like 15-60 minutes. How do think 24/7 radiation of 5G will affect humans and all life on earth?

'In the experiments in which insects (Drosophila) were irradiated, we studied the influence of millimeter waves on the survival rates of the irradiated individuals, their ability to reproduce, and the influence of such irradiation on their offspring in the first and second generations. Irradiation (for 15-60 min) of adult male and female Drosophila individuals was not lethal; they showed no externally evident changes, and breeding of such insects generally produced normal offspring. However, the offspring were fewer in number, and the fertility of the insects depended on the wavelength of the radiation to which they had been exposed (Fig. 1) and on the exposure time (Fig. 2).

Prolonged exposure to millimeter waves (for 3,4, and 5 hours) resulted in significant changes in the first and second generations of Drosophila. Male individuals obtained from irradiated parents in the second generation were characterized by lower than normal viability; many perished 3-6 days after crossing. In most cases, female individuals laid no eggs. Mutants seldom appeared in the first generation; most of them were observed in the second generation after prolonged exposure to radiation at 6.5 mm. Thus, genetic changes were observed after exposure to millimeter waves in the insect experiments, and were manifested in lowered fertility and viability of the offspring. The observed changes apparently took place in reproductive cells, since the offspring inherited them. Individual genes obviously exhibited definite sensitivity to millimeter waves; this was indicated by multiple occurrences of the mutations in the offspring of the irradiated Drosophila.' ...

European Media Caught in a Huge Coronavirus Lie

News broke this month that 13-year-old Ismail Mohamad Abdulwahab became the youngest coronavirus victim in the UK.

And 14-year-old Victor Godinho became the youngest coronavirus victim in Portugal.

Los Angeles, California, USA – The United States Navy removed more than 100 sailors from a hospital ship docked in Los Angeles to aid the city's fight against COVID-19 after seven crew members contracted the lethal virus – but exactly how remains a mystery.

- Advertisement -

The 116 medical staff members have been pulled off the USNS 'Mercy' on Tuesday and brought to a nearby base where they entered quarantine, Lieutenant Rochelle Rieger of the 3rd Fleet told the Associated Press, adding that none have been hospitalized so far.

More puzzling, however, is how – and where – the seven infected sailors could have picked up the virus, given that the ship's entire crew of more than 1,000 were tested and cleared before it set off for Los Angeles in late March. Since then, none of the sailors have been allowed to leave the vessel.

Though the 'Mercy' was deployed to take the pressure off of LA's crowded hospitals – intending to receive non-coronavirus patients to make room in intensive care units around the city – the ship has only taken in some 20 patients to date, largely due to strict military protocols governing who can receive treatment.

"The only people going on and off the ship are the actual patients we've been treating so it's very hard to trace where this came from," Rieger added.

Rieger said that two of the infected personnel came in close contact with a handful of patients, but only while wearing full protective gear, including goggles, gloves and N95 masks.

None of the ship's 20 patients have tested positive for the virus, however medical experts have warned that some COVID-19 test kits are unreliable and can return 'false negative' results, leaving some room for infected individuals to slip past screenings.

While there are now more questions than answers as to how the virus made it to the USNS 'Mercy', Rieger stated that the relocation of the 116 crewmen won't affect the ship's ability to treat patients – what few of them there are – adding that the Navy will send some of the staff to work in LA's medical facilities after completing a 14-day quarantine.

13.4.20 - Microsoft partners with 'performance artist' Marina Abramovic who is actually a new age witch who engages in 'spirit cooking' and satanism:

https://beforeitsnews.com/global-unrest/2020/04/microsoft-partners-with-performance-artist-marina-abramovic-who-is-actually-a-new-age-witch-who-engages-in-spirit-cooking-and-satanism-2528152.html?utm_referrer=https%3A%2F%2Fzen.yandex.com&utm_campaign=dbr

Microsoft is the company that funds Mark of the Beast digital identification company ID2020, and now they are promoting New Age witch Marina Abramovic who is best known for the satanic practice of spirit cooking. Is this really someone you would want to enter into holographic mixed reality with?

I suppose you can get away with just about anything if you call yourself a 'performance artist' instead of what you actually are, in this case we are talking a a High Priestess of modern-day Satanism, Marina Abramovic. She is a wicked woman whose 'performance art' usually revolves around snakes, pig's blood, images of Baphomet, and all the rest of that garbage. But nothing to see her, people, Marina is just an 'edgy performance artist', that's all. Yeah, right.

"And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.” 2 Chronicles 33:6 (KJB)

Take a look at an article published by the UCLA Center for European and Russian Studies back in 2018, where they calmly and rationally discussed the rise importance of witchcraft in Hollywood. It's not simply enlightening, it's a stunning eye-opener, and of course we see Marina Abramovic featured prominently in it.

“We seem to be living in bewitched times. Witches are everywhere, or rather: victims of alleged witch hunts pop up all over the place, preferable on Twitter or other social media outlets. Pop-stars perform as witches, like Katy Perry in her performance at the 2014 Grammy awards, where she appeared in a cowl before a crystal ball, while later dancing with broomsticks as poles. Beyoncé’s visual album “Lemonade” (2016) made several explicit references to black witchcraft rituals. Azealia Banks proclaimed on Twitter that she practiced “three years’ worth of bruja” (witchcraft) and tweeted, while cleaning the blood-smeared room used for her animal sacrifices, “Real witches do real things” (2016). Marina Abramovic’s performance piece “Spirit Cooking” (1996) was used in the infamous Pizzagate conspiracy theory of 2016 accusing Abramovic and the Hillary Clinton campaign of practicing witchcraft rituals and occult magic. Meanwhile, thousands of people coordinate binding spells against political leaders (#bindtrump) and Silvia Federici’s seminal book “Caliban and the Witch” moved from the bookshelf to the bedside table for many art professionals.”

But do your own research, we have done ours and are satisfied that Marina Abramovic is exactly who we think she is, a New Age witch who hides behind performance art to promote Satanism, witchcraft, and all the rest of her demonic nonsense. So with that, let's take a look at what Microsoft, the same company who is funding ID2020, is doing with Abramovic. Of course, me writing all these words are actually completely unnecessary, because when you watch the promotional video Microsoft has produced to promote her, it's lights out and case closed.

Now if you have half a brain, after everything we present to you here, the last place you want to be is in a virtual world with a New Age witch known for satanism, gore and cannibalism. But this is where evil end times company Microsoft wants to take you, don't go.

Performance artist Marina Abramovic breaks new ground—in mixed reality

From the 1970s through to the present, she has created dozens of incredibly impactful works that explore themes of courage, ego, endurance, and spirituality. In 2010, her iconic work The Artist Is Present, was the biggest exhibition at New York City's MoMA ever. In the piece, she sat still for eight hours, every day, for nearly three months, sustaining eye contact with whomever sat across from her.

“Any medium—visual, aural, even material—is really just a conduit for the energy of the artist to reach the understanding of the audience. In mixed reality we’ve achieved the first medium capable of presenting a recorded performance as an event happening now,” says Todd. “The artist is forever, in this case, which changes the very nature of what the conduit means. But for the audience with The Life, it's my hope that they never think about such things. Instead I want them to walk away feeling like they were just in the room with Marina.”

Marina's most recent piece, The Life, further solidifies her unconventional and innovative approach to performance art—it's her first artwork to harness mixed reality. Brought to life with the HoloLens 2, the 19-minute performance follows Abramović, whose phantom-like virtual image appears in a vibrant red dress as she explores the space and its borders. Viewers become mesmerized by her mindful movements, her virtual image dissolving as she interacts with the installation's borders.

For the first time, viewers are able to experience performance art without boundaries—and without the artist technically being “present.” As soon as they don the HoloLens 2 headset, Abramović's fully realized form takes shape before their eyes. READ MORE

In March 2020, with the U.S. reeling from the COVID-19 pandemic, the Secure 5G and Beyond Act (S. 893) and the Broadband Deployment Accuracy and Technological Availability Act (S. 1822) were signed into law.

The duo will accelerate the adoption of 5G, or “5th Generation,” wireless networks across the U.S. — and in so doing, force Americans to receive unprecedented levels of exposure to the millimeter wave (MMW), which has shown potential to harm human health and the environment.

The 5G act requires the president to develop a strategy to ensure the security of 5G mobile telecommunications systems and infrastructures in the U.S., while assisting “allies and strategic partners” to maximize the security of such systems.¹

The Broadband act requires the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to issue rules regarding data collection to ultimately improve the accuracy of maps showing where broadband is available in the U.S.²

What’s more, the 5G Act requires the president to consult with the FCC, the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense and other agencies and submit a plan to Congress within 180 days detailing how secure 5G will be implemented.

With millions of Americans suddenly working remotely, it’s an opportune time to for regulators to move 5G forward — but it’s a move that has many experts concerned. Still, the legislation is moving forward under the guise of bringing faster Internet to Americans, at any cost. The House

Energy and Commerce Committee, which is led by chairman Frank Pallone, Jr., said in a statement:³

"The bills signed into law ... by the President are critical to ensuring that all Americans can access broadband and that our networks are secure and trusted. The need for connectivity is even more critical now that millions of Americans are teleworking and learning from home in response to the coronavirus pandemic.

We must prepare our networks for the 5G future and ensure federal agencies work together on a comprehensive plan to identify and address security risks in 5G and future wireless technologies — the Secure 5G and Beyond Act requires exactly that ...

It's also long past time to fix our nation's faulty broadband maps. Accurately mapping unserved and underserved communities is essential to promoting the deployment of high-speed service to all Americans and ensuring our investments have maximum impact. The Broadband DATA Act will help tremendously with those efforts ..."

Does EMF Exposure Raise Coronavirus Risk?

In the interview above [go to Mercola article web page for interview; transcript is here: <https://mercola.fileburst.com/PDF/ExpertInterviewTranscripts/Interview-BrianHoyer-EMFsAndCoronavirus.pdf>], Brian Hoyer — one of the primary consultants for my latest book, "EMF*D" — discusses how electromagnetic field (EMF) radiation may be impacting the COVID-19 epidemic and your infection risk. Many have raised questions about whether there is a connection between 5G and this pandemic.

While unproven, one current theory is that EMF radiation — and the addition of 5G in particular — could be having an impact. Hoyer cites data from Arthur Firstenberg's book, "The Invisible Rainbow,"⁴ in which he catalogued epidemiological evidence showing that as electrification of the world was implemented, throughout the course of history, viral pandemics ensued.

To put it simply, poor immune function and ill health combined with environmental stressors such as heightened EMF exposure might create a perfect storm where the virus has an easy way to get into the body and can reproduce faster.

Smaller 5G Wavelengths Pose Unprecedented Risk

In the video below — "5G Beware," created by Greater Earth Media — three experts discuss the pitfalls of rolling out 5G technology before its effects on humans and the environment are understood. Unlike the "4th Generation" (4G) technology currently in use, which relies on huge 90-foot cell towers with about a dozen antenna ports on each, the 5G system uses "small cell" facilities or bases, each with about 100 antenna ports each.⁵

Expected to be 10 to 100 times faster than 4G technology and capable of supporting at least 100 billion devices,⁶ 5G relies primarily on the MMW bandwidth, which is between 30GHz and 300GHz, according to EMF coach and author Lloyd Burrell.⁷

"MMWs ... do not travel well through buildings and they tend to be absorbed by rain and plants. This interferes with the signal. Added to this, high frequency waves like MMWs also have much shorter wavelengths that can't travel far," he says.

"To counter this problem 5G will utilize smaller cell stations (and the technology of beamforming) that'll scramble/unscramble and redirect packets of data on a no-interference path back to us. This could mean wireless antennas on every lamp post, utility pole, home and business throughout entire neighborhoods, towns and cities," Burrell explains,⁸ and herein lies one of its greatest potential problems — and threats to public health.

In "5G Beware," Atul Deshmane, commissioner of Whatcom County Public Utility District in Washington state, walks down the street with an EMF meter, which shows EMF levels "way above the safe limit" with 4G technology. "If 5G increases this by an order of magnitude, maybe that's something to be concerned about," he says.

'This Is Our Generation's Tobacco'

Jon Humphrey, a music educator in Bellingham, Washington who has decades of professional IT experience, compared the telecommunications industry to Big Tobacco, stating that 5G technology is our generation's tobacco. "As usual, 5G, like 4G and 3G before it, is mostly a marketing term and most of what you're being told isn't accurate," Humphrey says.⁹

The antennae enclosures added to utility poles and lamp posts may not only be eye sores, including antennae enclosures that are up to 6 cubic feet each, but also pose a very real threat to public health. While MMWs have not been widely used before, there are some concerning findings to date, according to Telecom Power Grab, including that sweat ducts in human skin act as antennae when they come in contact with MMWs.¹⁰

Dr. Linda Goggin, of Feel Good Functional Medicine in Bellingham, also warns in the film that 5G technology will turn us all into lab rats, part of a giant experiment, as no one knows what 5G will do to human health:

"We are in our infancy in terms of our understanding of what electromagnetic fields do to the body. And we're wondering if it is a problem. We function because of moving currents in our body. That's a basic principle.

Nerves function because of the shifts in movement of electric charge. The structure of the water in our body is very important for normal function and that also is affected by charge coming from outside the body. This whole field of the electromagnetic spectrum affects us ... It's got to be studied by scientists."

5G Connection in Areas Hardest Hit by COVID-19

Interestingly, many of the areas hardest hit by COVID-19 have recently implemented 5G, which might render residents more prone to serious infection by lowering their immune function. Hoyer cited Dr. Thomas Cowan, who brought up a potential connection between 5G and COVID-19 during a March 12, 2020, lecture at the Health and Human Rights Summit in Tucson, Arizona.

While I'm not saying 5G spreads the infection or is a vector of infection, it's possible that it raises your risk by impairing your innate immune system's ability to fight off coronavirus. According to Hoyer:

"[Cowan] is a top-notch doctor, he's on the cutting edge ... he talks about Wuhan as one of the testing grounds for 5G, where 5G was first implemented in China. And what's interesting about Italy ... is that Milan — the Lombardi area of Italy where two-thirds of the cases are — is considered the 5G capital of the European Union according to Vodafone, which is the big 5G carrier out there ...

If you go on Vodafone's website, you can see the 5G map, and it's sprinkled throughout all Milan and Lombardi, that province up there. So that is definitely a more concentrated area.

... So, there's 5G in Milan, in Wuhan, and New York City is one of the highest, most intense [5G] areas I've seen, and Seattle ... But 5G doesn't matter so much to me. It's about the intensity of the EMF. New York was basically as intense as a 5G area already, before 5G was implemented, in my opinion. It maxes out all of our meters wherever I go. There are hidden antennas everywhere in New York City.

[Seattle] has a lot of hills in the city, and right on Queen Anne, there are two huge radio towers with probably 100 antennas on them, just blasting the whole city. We've had assessments there where we've maxed out [our meters], and even shielded rooms upstairs and it still maxed out."

US Government Spending $9.7 Billion for 5G C-Band Spectrum

Part of the U.S. government's plan to fast-track the 5G rollout is an offer of $9.7 billion in compensation payments to satellite operators to give up their C-band spectrum licenses.

The C-band spectrum (from the 3.7GHz to 4.2GHz band) is currently used by satellite operators but is desirable for the telecom industry as, according to news outlet CommsMEA, "It blends the ability to deliver hyperfast download speeds in excess of 1Gbps with much improved propagation ranges, when compared to higher frequency spectrums."¹¹

In a statement, the FCC called this a "critical step in implementing our comprehensive 5G FAST Plan, as it will rapidly put mid-band spectrum into the hands of innovators and consumers and pave the way for the United States to lead the world in 5G deployment."¹²

US Banned Chinese Components Over Fears of Espionage

Privacy issues are another concern. Already, the U.S. government banned the use of Chinese components in the U.S. 5G network because of surveillance fears.¹³ Further, U.S. companies have also been banned from selling computer chips to Huawei Technologies Co., which is producing 5G base stations, citing national security concerns. According to Bloomberg:¹⁴

"US officials accuse Huawei of stealing valuable intellectual property and violating a trade embargo with Iran. The Trump administration blacklisted the company last year, saying there's a risk Huawei could give Beijing access to sensitive data coursing through telecommunications networks that employ its gear.

Huawei has denied the allegations. Critics also said the US government imposed the sanctions to hobble China's leadership in key aspects of 5G technology."

The ban hasn't stopped Huawei, however, which has continued to produce base stations without U.S. components. As of February 2020, Huawei had shipped about 600,000 base stations to mobile phone companies.¹⁵ China has also been fast-tracking their 5G networks and planned to activate more than 130,000 base stations by the end of 2019 in order to support its 5G network.¹⁶

Now, with people using technology to communicate digitally instead of face-to-face, virtually all communication is being sent through networks manufactured by China. If backdoors used for surveillance are built into 5G base stations, the tracking and surveillance that could result would be unprecedented in scope. According to Humphrey, however, even the race with China to roll out 5G is all smoke and mirrors. He states:¹⁷

"We can't keep up with China on networking including with 5G. Why? Because China manufactures most of the fiber-optic cabling in the world. Fiber isn't expensive here [in the U.S.], and it's even less expensive in China. Small cells, like the ones used in 5G, have to be hooked up to fiber-optic cabling and since China installs their fiber in a public manner they can leverage it for use in the most efficient, cost-effective manner possible."

Humphrey also states in "5G Beware" that the U.S. is far behind most of the rest of the developed world because it doesn't have public fiber optics. While it's sometimes said that 5G will ultimately replace fiber optics, Humphrey says this is laughable, since 5G requires fiber optics. "Fiber optics is safe," he says, "it just carries light. You might as well just hook directly up to the fiber and have a choice in how much EMF exposure you're getting."

You Won't Have a Choice to Opt Out, so What Can You Do?

Once it's installed in your neighborhood, you won't have a choice to opt out of 5G exposure. "5G will be virtually everywhere, with the options of being able to simply "get away from it" being very limited as millions of small cell devices are rolled out," Humphrey says.¹⁸

When tomorrow comes!

Will you give all you can give
So that our banner may advance
Some will fall and some will live
Will you stand up and take your chance?
The blood of the martyrs
Will water the meadows of France!

Do you hear the people sing?
Singing a song of angry men?
It is the music of a people
Who will not be slaves again

When the beating of your heart
Echoes the beating of the drums
There is a life about to start
When tomorrow comes

[Epilogue]
Do you hear the people sing
Lost in the valley of the night
It is the music of a people
Who are climbing to the light

For the wretched of the earth
There is a flame that never dies
Even the darkest night will end
And the sun will rise.

They will live again in freedom
In the garden of the Lord
They will walk behind the plough-share
They will put away the sword
The chain will be broken
And all men will have their reward!

Will you join in our crusade?
Who will be strong and stand with me?
Somewhere beyond the barricade
Is there a world you long to see?

Do you hear the people sing
Say, do you hear the distant drums?
It is the future that they bring
When tomorrow comes!

Will you join in our crusade?
Who will be strong and stand with me?
Somewhere beyond the barricade
Is there a world you long to see?

Do you hear the people sing
Say, do you hear the distant drums?
It is the future that they bring
When tomorrow comes!
Tomorrow comes!
Tomorrow comes!

16.4.20 - Russia fires “satellite killer” missile: <https://www.thetimes.co.uk/article/35cef3ba-7fff-11ea-b437-a2f12268f8d1?shareToken=f0fd8fcef9cfc4bad9f01e1f4c5a2b2d>

Note from compiler: Yet more disinformation. You read that through and think, "Wow! Those evil Russians are always up to no good!" But there is not a single mention that NATO declared space a domain of warfare in December (https://www.nato.int/cps/en/natohq/official_texts_171584.htm) and it was to that that Russia was responding. The country that is weaponising space is not Russia but the US! And it has now been admitted that Musk's satellites are to be used for military purposes and that Trump's Space Force's true purpose is to protect 5G satellites. I see Russia's launch of this satellite very much as good news. It is a shot across America's bows that Russia is not going to sit there and let them do as they like in space. Yet another reason to move to Russia as the last sane country on the planet.

Article:

The Russian test launch of a missile designed to shoot down satellites in Earth orbit has raised the "real, serious and growing" threat of space weaponisation, Washington has warned.

US Space Command said it was "aware and tracking" the launch, which was not confirmed by Moscow. The weapon, thought to be an A-235 PL-19 Nudol "direct ascent" anti-ballistic missile and anti-satellite weapon system, was tested on Wednesday.

The test "provides yet another example that the threats to US and allied space systems are real, serious and growing", General John W "Jay" Raymond, commander of US Space Command and chief of space operations of US Space Force, said. "The United States is ready and committed to deterring aggression and defending the nation, our allies and US interests from hostile acts in space."

The US Space Force was the first new American military service since 1947 when it was created by President Trump last year. He said its task was to protect national security in "the world's new war-fighting domain".

Space Command said the Russian missile was capable of destroying satellites in low Earth orbit, which extends just over 1,240 miles (2,000km) from land. Its test launch came two months after Mr Raymond accused Russia of using two military inspection satellites to stalk a multibillion-dollar US spy satellite.

That zero-gravity game of cat and mouse was regarded in Washington as an attempt by Moscow to expand its provocative encounters with US aircraft and warships into a new domain.

President Putin said in December that Russia was being forced to respond to US plans to make space a "theatre of military operations. The situation requires us to pay increased attention to strengthening the orbital group as well as the rocket and space industry."

Russia is understood to have carried out tests of the Nudol in 2015 and 2016. In a test in 2018 a missile was launched from a transporter at the Plesetsk cosmodrome. Moscow emphasises its role as a missile defence system, rather than an anti-satellite weapon.

Mr Raymond, a member of the joint chiefs of staff, said that the new test was "further proof of Russia's hypocritical advocacy of outer space arms control proposals designed to restrict the capabilities of the United States while clearly having no intention of halting their counter-space-weapons programmes".

He said: "Space is critical to all nations and our way of life. The demands on space systems continue in this time of crisis where global logistics, transportation and communication are key to defeating the Covid-19 pandemic."

Activity in space is increasing as hundreds of satellites are launched for military purposes, communications, weather monitoring, Earth observation and positioning. Elon Musk's SpaceX plans to put a constellation of 12,000 small satellites in orbit by 2027 to provide internet access.

The United States, China and India also have the capability to shoot down satellites.

Sergey Lavrov, Russia's foreign minister, said on Tuesday that Moscow was "ready to talk with US colleagues" about measures to limit the deployment of weapons in outer space.

President Putin said in December that Russia was being forced to make space a "theatre of military operations"

SOLUTIONS / INSPIRATION (ongoing)

Message from Brian Snellgrove at 5Gexposed:

View this email in your browser

Good morning everybody,
The best time of day is when I'm waking up, enjoying the rest that I obtained during the night and the odd dream or so and then the cloud descends. I realise that for many of my fellow human beings are in a mental prison of fear and that to them it is real. It is so real that if you opened the door of their prison cell they would be afraid to go out.

I am maintaining the 5G aspect of the site but there's not much to report apart from the fact that clandestinely, installation of 5G hardware goes on and also that projects have temporarily been set back. Ian Crane (AV) is recovering from his cancer operations but is in a lot of pain and asks people not to call him on his mobile number. UKColumn for the latest updates given thrice weekly.. Here in England we have to put up with 24/7 'fear porn' coverage by our British Broadcasting Corporation which a few decades ago was independent and objective. Now this once respected organisation is little more than a public relations company for the corporates and the globalists.

I am not buying into this stay at home nonsense (Ref: Sweden) which is the greatest contributor to depression and discouragement of healing that you could devise. Isn't it funny that they ban going outdoors and communing with nature? I go to my allotment as often as possible and feel so good and grounded.

I see people wearing masks - as if that will do anything. I find it difficult to avoid breaking out in laughter. The particles are 95 nm which will get through pretty much everything including the material itself but of course the area around.

Have they never heard of the "immune system" which continually fights off the effects of thousands of viruses as part of its daily job, but that's another story.

Is there a recipe for maintaining your spirit? Without a spirit, we can't fight anything including 5G.

At the risk of repeating the blindingly obvious:

Keep in contact with your friends. I suggest they will appreciate a telephone call more than a text message or e-mail. Hearing the sound of the human voice is so much more personal and empowering and it stimulates your friends to respond and jump out of their self-imposed isolation.

Keep yourself informed. If you believe for one second that our governments (strangely all of them are working together) care about us then you need to rethink. This is part of the preplanned operation, thank you Bill Gates, to create the conditions in which everyone is frightened into accepting a compulsory vaccination which will probably contain an RFID chip. No chip - no travel, no shopping, no banking. NB I have spent a lot of time compiling the most useful articles on my corona aspect page including by doctors and scientists. You will be released from fear, or some of it, when you see these people courageously standing up.

maybe be very brave and actually speak to people and seek their views. Beware disturbing family members because you may need them

For this to happen, people require our compliance. Please note, I do not use the word 'co-operation' because that means working with. Silence is compliance. That's what they (drug companies etc) are hoping for.

Switch off the news. 90% if not more it is either lies or based on lies. I have not listened or watched BBC news for a couple of weeks now and I feel far better for it. Reading the papers is bad enough, Our Guardian paper in the UK might as well be shills for the corporates.

Listen to good music, remember classical music? Why not get out some of those CDs and let the beautiful inspired sounds float around your apartment or your home.

Do you have a garden - or yard and you would say in USA. Why not have a walk round, introduce yourself to the plants or perhaps the other way round. Listen to the birds if there are any. You could even go for a walk unless you are from one of those countries where draconian rules have been installed, for example France.

Take advantage of any extra time you have by reading those books that you have been dying to get into but haven't had the time use the opportunity to clear out your apartment of unwanted items. Hoarding is a bigger problem than many might imagine because maybe an item is linked to a memory or situation that is in the past and should be let go of.

Some of you who believe in meditation might like to take up the practice again. It doesn't have to be long and pretentious, it could be as someone suggested 3 x 10 min sessions per day... and something is better than nothing.

Make it a rule to encourage at least one person a day. Everyone needs cheering up and this is the biggest assault or psychological operation that I can recall certainly in my lifetime. Possibly the "weapons of mass destruction" would come a close second but no on second thoughts this is more widespread and insidious. (lovely word that – it means "proceeding in a gradual, subtle way, but with very harmful effects" - Ed.)

finally, if there is a finally, remember that nature is the best healer and will be around long after we have destroyed ourselves as human beings with our idiot behaviour. I'm a great fan of 'grounding' which means you stand in bare feet outside and adjust your body resonances to those of the Earth.

If you become fearful then that shows that the people who want to control you have won. Surely we have more dignity than allowing ourselves to be treated like sheep. It's up to us really.

Oh, and by the way, I don't mind receiving telephone calls or maybe even better use Skype. bsnellgrove is my username. I have functioned as a counsellor for many decades now so it is no bother or intrusion to me as I know how horrible it is to be on your own without anyone on the same wavelength.

Lots of love

LondonReal Brian Rose – Reconnect: <https://londonreal.tv/reconnect-the-movie/>
A Journey with Ayahuasca

Reconnect is London Real's fifth feature-length documentary film and documents Brian Rose's journey to Costa Rica where he participates in multiple ceremonies with the plant medicine Ayahuasca. The movie stars Graham Hancock, Dr. Jordan Peterson, Dennis McKenna, Sadhguru, Dorian Yates, Dr. Gabor Mate, Dr. Joe Dispenza, Michael Pollan, and Dan Pena.

As the founder and host of London Real, Brian Rose has spoken to over 600 of the greatest minds on the planet for the past eight years including Dan Peña, Dan Bilzerian, Robert Kiyosaki, Jocko Willink and more.

With an aim to spread transformational ideas to the world, London Real reaches millions of people each month with its message and yet, when Brian looked outside his studio, he saw a very different reality: a world full of division, tribalism, hatred, anger, and disconnection from our environment.

Against that background, Brian also felt extremely disconnected from his purpose, his mission, and his family.

Under the advice of legendary psychedelic researcher Dennis McKenna (brother of the late Terence McKenna), Brian decided to travel to Costa Rica to participate in three ceremonies with the ancient plant medicine Ayahuasca, known for inducing powerful visions, painful experiences, and transformational lessons.

There he reconnects with his vision and purpose but also uncovers childhood trauma that created an existential crisis in his life. After returning to London with clear visions about the future, he soon realised that things are not what he expected, and that real transformation and healing must include painful challenges and uncomfortable situations.

Along the way, Brian is advised and mentored by a number of London Real guests including Jordan Peterson, the best selling author Michael Pollan, Graham Hancock, childhood trauma specialist Dr. Gabor Mate, the Indian mystic Sadhguru, Dr. Robin Carhart-Harris of Imperial College London, former bodybuilder Dorian Yates, Dr. Joe Dispenza, and high-performance coach Dan Peña, the $50 Billion Man.

Despite this incredible guidance, Brian struggles to address his personal demons, and ultimately decides to confront the people who caused his trauma. So he embarks on a trip home to speak separately to his mother and father, in order to heal himself and ultimately create a new future for his children, his company, and his movement.

Watch Reconnect now and share in Brian's story through his Ayahuasca ceremony and beyond to his integration exclusively here on London Real.

2.5.06 – Article: Beyond Hope By Derrick Jensen: <https://orionmagazine.org/article/beyond-hope/>

... When we realize the degree of agency we actually do have, we no longer have to "hope" at all. We simply do the work. We make sure salmon survive. We make sure prairie dogs survive. We make sure grizzlies survive. We do whatever it takes.

When we stop hoping for external assistance, when we stop hoping that the awful situation we're in will somehow resolve itself, when we stop hoping the situation will somehow not get worse, then we are finally free — truly free — to honestly start working to resolve it. I would say that when hope dies, action begins.

PEOPLE SOMETIMES ASK ME, "If things are so bad, why don't you just kill yourself?" The answer is that life is really, really good. I am a complex enough being that I can hold in my heart the understanding that we are really, really fucked, and at the same time that life is really, really good. I am full of rage, sorrow, joy, love, hate, despair, happiness, satisfaction, dissatisfaction, and a thousand other feelings. We are really fucked. Life is still really good.

Many people are afraid to feel despair. They fear that if they allow themselves to perceive how desperate our situation really is, they must then be perpetually miserable. They forget that it is possible to feel many things at once. They also forget that despair is an entirely appropriate response to a desperate situation. Many people probably also fear that if they allow themselves to perceive how desperate things are, they may be forced to do something about it. ...

9.4.20 - Robert Steele: Holistic Appraisal of Health Solution for Virus:

<https://phibetaiota.net/2020/04/robert-steele-holistic-appraisal-of-health-solution-for-virus/>

Argyrol has been in clinical use for over 118 years and was in hospitals and pharmacies. first aid kits and most home medicine cabinets until about 25 years ago.

Argyrol is immediate to manufacture and market in all jurisdictions [according to Pat Smith who was the Glaxo-Smith Klein Technical Director for South Africa].

In it's heyday Argyrol had multiple headquarters in the United States, Great Britain, Australia and South Africa; to all appearance Argyrol was ubiquitous. Argyrol ships through customs globally without impediments.

Argyrol is recognized as not new nor alternative and for that reason, can be used off-label [being tested now in Kenya against HIV by doctors and public health personnel at their request].

Christine the owner has used this drug personally to nebulization four years. The dosage was over 2.5mLs daily. The same dosage amount after four years was administered rectally for an additional year.

Daily administration of Argyrol resulted in no heavy metal toxicity, no staining of my mucosa of my throat and absolutely no other reactions of discomfort or irritation to rectal tissue from daily administration of Argyrol at all. She was monitored by her physicians with blood tests and PET scans with no irregularities observed.

The only first reaction was the Jarisch Herxheimer (Healing crisis) which subsided within a few days.

Were there to be bottles of OTC Argyrol Anti-Infective in the hospital pharmacies for respiratory wards, in the pharmacies and everywhere else as there was less than 25 years ago, there would be no global fear gripping individuals without ANYTHING to militate against pandemic pathogens engaging with their bodies on their mucous membranes, for God's sake and definitely no reason to shut down the entire global economy for 'the pestilence that stalks in darkness' noted in Psalm 91:6. How do we look after 25 years without OTC Argyrol? I rest my case.

Tom Atlee, the author of this book, gets credit for defining a “bottom up” approach that is sensible and implementable. This book focuses on what comes next, after everyone gets tired of just “meeting up” or “just blogging.” This book is about collective intelligence for the common good, and it is a very fine book.

From: The Handbook for the New Paradigm:

"Remember that we are not to consider the actions or the reactions of the other side. We are going to be dreaming within little known possibilities; therefore all things are possible. The contingent plans of the other side can only work in their known reality. You are going to be setting up a reality that is far outside anything that they have even considered. It is this level of creativity that we are striving to encourage you to reach...Remember your imagination is the entry point to the "mind of God" which is infinite potentiality. The invocation of His Presence when "two or more are present," is true to a degree you limited ones have not yet perceived."

Article & video

In a recent interview with Vice, NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden expressed his concerns about the coming surveillance program, calling it the “architecture of oppression.”

“Do you truly believe that when the first wave, this second wave, the 16th wave of the coronavirus is a long-forgotten memory, that these capabilities will not be kept? That these datasets will not be kept? No matter how it is being used, what’ is being built is the architecture of oppression,” Snowden said.

Snowden recognized that the virus was a serious threat and said that the intelligence community was well aware that it was only a matter of time before a massive pandemic crippled the country, even back when he was working in the NSA.

“There is nothing more foreseeable as a public health crisis in a world where we are just living on top of each other in crowded and polluted cities, than a pandemic. And every academic, every researcher who’s looked at this knew this was coming. And in fact, even intelligence agencies, I can tell you first hand, because they used to read the reports had been planning for pandemics,” he said.

Snowden questioned the positive numbers that have come out of China in recent weeks and pointed out that the Chinese government has been credited with reducing the spread of the illness because they took such draconian measures during the lockdown.

Perhaps their extreme strategy is not working as well as they say it is, but since the government maintained tight control of any information coming out of the country, it is impossible to say for sure.

"If you're looking at countries like China, where cases seem to have leveled off, how much can we trust that those numbers are actually true? I don't think we can. Particularly, we see the Chinese government recently working to expel Western journalists at precisely this moment where we need credible independent warnings in this region," Snowden said. ...

APPENDIX: SYMPTOMS

16.4.20 – Dr. Sircus - ICU doctors know best: <https://drsircus.com/coronavirus/icu-doctors-know-best/>

John Whyte, MD, Chief Medical Officer at WebMD said, "We have been seeing a high mortality for patients once they are put on a ventilator. Part of the challenge is that we don't always have enough data early-on in an epidemic. That's why it is important to talk to physicians on the front-lines and hear about what they are seeing. This creates more discussion and debate in the clinical and scientific community to help us determine the most effective treatment strategies.”

The ICU doctor in the video below (which has gone viral) from New York suggests that we are treating the wrong disease with the wrong measures. WebMD published, “As doctors treat more patients who are severely ill from COVID-19, they’re noticing differences in how their lungs are damaged. Some patients coming to the hospital have very low oxygen levels in their blood, but you wouldn’t necessarily know it from talking to them. [Check out what 60 GHz does – hypoxia. See Federal Communications Commission Office Of Engineering

FCC 1997: “For current technology the important oxygen absorption peak occurs at 60 GHz.”

https://transition.fcc.gov/Bureaus/Engineering_Technology/Documents/bulletins/oet70/oet70a.pdf

And Technology Bulletin Number 70 July, 1997 – graphic below] They don’t seem starved of oxygen. They may be a little confused. But they aren’t struggling to breathe.”

“When doctors take pictures of their lungs — either with a CT scanner or an X-ray machine — those also look fairly healthy. The lungs may have a few areas of cloudiness and crazing, indicating spots of damage from their infection, but most of the lung is black, indicating that it is filled with air.”
